- Compilation and evaluation of competitive and SWOT analyses
- Management and coordination of the localization, scoring and physical production of game projects in cooperation with third-party companies and internal departments such as producing, marketing and sales
- Cooperation with international brand partners and third-party license holders including coordination, feedback and approval processes
- Representing the Head of Product Management in times of absence
- Assume a responsible role in regards of other team members including guidance and support

Your qualifications:

Core Competencies

- University degree or similar education with at least 5 years professional experience as a project and/or product manager for games (PC and consoles)
- Strong written and verbal communication skills in English and German
- Strong knowledge of common project management tools and Office, basic knowledge of Adobe Creative Suite
- You have a talent for organization and a keen eye for the bigger picture. You are also able to coordinate complex projects in a fast-paced, international environment

- A goal-oriented, efficient work approach, and a high degree of initiative and reliability
- Willingness to pro-actively pursue important topics and assume ownership as a great team player
- Strong enthusiasm for games (especially simulations) and pop culture

What we can offer:

- An inspiring working environment within a driven, young team as well as dynamic career opportunities
- Great benefits like bonus entitlement, employer-funded pension, and flexible working hours
- City centre location with a great public transport link as well as the option of free parking
- Free soft-drinks, coffee and tea
- Fresh fruit
- Legendary team events
